

Teachers who participate in DELFL (diplôme d'étude en langue française) training will deepen their knowledge of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages \(CEFR\) to develop a common understanding of language evaluation strategies and practices, and apply these understandings to meet the requirements of the DELF assessments. The training also improves second language pedagogy by learning about the action-oriented approach which allows teachers to structure their lessons using authentic situations.

The training also provides:

- Theoretical foundations of the CEFR and the DELF language assessments;
- Presentation of DELF assessment tools, listening and reading tests, oral and written production assessments;
- Conduct expected of DELF evaluators;
- Exploration of DELF evaluation rubrics;
- Case studies.
